INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

The Phi Beta Kappa Society was originally founded at William and Mary's College, in Virginia. The Alpha of Connecticut was organized at Yale College, Nov. 13th, 1780, and that of Massachusetts, at Harvard University, about the same time, by charter from the Alpha of Virginia. The original Alpha of Virginia is now extinct. The branches of the Society at the present time, are six in number, viz.

Alpha of Connecticut, at Yale College, New Haven.

Alpha of Massachusetts, at Harvard University, Cambridge.

Alpha of New Hampshire, at Dartmouth College, Hanover.

Alpha of New York, at Union College, Schenectady.

Alpha of Maine, at Bowdoin College, Brunswick.

Alpha of Rhode Island, at Brown University, Providence.
